Announcements.

FOR COURT OF APPEALS JUDGE.

We are authorized to announce Hon. JAS. B. DENNIS, of Cape Girardeau, as a candidate for Judge of the Court of Appeals for the Eastern District of Missouri—subject to the decision of the Democratic Judicial Convention for said District.

FOR CONSTABLE.

W. J. HUNT is a candidate for Constable of Arcadia Township, subject to the voters of said township, at the November election.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The Valley young folks had a hay-ride Tuesday night.

Peach Ice Cream at the Presbyterian church Thursday evening.

Ice Cream ready at five o'clock, and will be served to those who wish it for supper.

The Christian Endeavor Society will serve Ice Cream and Ice Cream Soda in the church basement next Thursday evening.

Baldwin Bros. began Tuesday on a bill of 7,000 sets of hubs. This factory is becoming a favorite all over the West.

The whooping-cough has become quite prevalent in Ironton and vicinity. The disease seems to be of a mild type, however, and no fatalities have resulted.

Born—At Ironton, Mo., on Monday, July 13, 1896, to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Block, a son. Although a little late, the Register congratulates the happy parents.

Mr. H. M. Tichenor was in Ironton today in the interest of the St. Louis Post-Dispatch. He added a goodly number of free silverites to the subscription list of the P.-D.

Ice Cream Soda Thursday evening at the Presbyterian church basement. Is intended as an assistant to cool you off, so you can sleep good and arise a better and happier man next morning.

Taken from the De Soto section of the "Society" column of the Globe-Democrat of last Sunday: "Miss Katie Colman and F. H. Putnam were married on Thursday, at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. Julia Colman."

The three companies of U. S. troops who have been practicing at the Rifle Range have returned to Jefferson Barracks. Company B. went yesterday, and I. and K. left this morning. Another installment will be down in a few days. It is rumored that a range for artillery practice may be located here, but the rumor lacks confirmation.

At the Democratic Mass Meeting last Saturday, John Webb was elected Chairman, and A. Huff, Secretary. Messrs. Wm. R. Edgar and Mary Ringo were chosen delegates to the Judicial Convention to be held at St. Louis on the 18th of August. They will assist in naming a candidate for Judge of the Court of Appeals, Eastern District of Missouri.

Sunday night of last week the lightning struck a barn belonging to Lyssander Ashlock, a farmer living some eight miles southeast of Ironton. In the barn were four mules—two belonging to Ashlock, and two the property of a Mr. Cook who was threshing on the farm. The two teams were divided by a log partition. Cook's mules were killed, and Ashlock's escaped without injury.

We noted last week the curious fact that a stroke of lightning had passed through the roof of a barn, and a mow of hay, without setting fire to the same. Mr. Benj. Spitzmiller explains it satisfactorily. He says "there are cold streaks as well as hot streaks of lightning, and it was a cold streak that went through Myracle's barn." The ways of nature are perfectly plain when understood.

DIED—Philip Pfoertner, in Pilot Knob, July 25, 1896; aged 67 years and 6 days. Mr. Pfoertner was born in Habsauer, Germany, in 1829, and came to America in 1854, where he spent the last part of his life. He was never married, and hence did not have any permanent home; but with German thrift and economy saved quite a little sum of money. He was buried Sabbath, July 26th.

The old Whitworth corner is being revamped. A new and modern front is going up that will make it uniform with the bank building being erected by the side of the old store. The boys will hereafter miss the comforting shade of the old wooden awning, and the lounging places outside the windows will become memories. One by one the old landmarks yield to the onward tread of progress and change.

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Doty of this city are in receipt of the following: "Arriving Place, July 21, 1896. This is to announce the arrival of your granddaughter, Ida Robie Georgette Lilley, born July 21 at 7:30 a. m. Weight nine pounds. Mother and baby doing well. The happy parents, Mr. and Mrs. James N. Lilley, were former residents of Colton, and their many friends here tender them hearty congratulations upon the advent of their first-born.—Colton, Cal., News."

One of our leading citizens was informed by another citizen the other day that it was "as hot as—!" He demurred to this; he thought that of the place where the goats are to be confined on the last great day; but when the mercury reached the 100 mark in the shade on Tuesday, he returned to his informant and gave a qualified assent to the proposition first above referred to.

Mip Miner, a young man working at McLeod's sawmill in the eastern edge of Reynolds county, was murdered by Charles Gallagher last Saturday. The two men had had a dispute about some logs, but friends interposed and kept them from coming to blows. Miner went to his team and began un hitching. While his back was turned, Gallagher went to him and struck him on the head with a wagon-standard, crushing his skull. Three blows were struck before bystanders could interfere. Miner died in a couple of hours, and Gallagher was arrested. He will have a preliminary examination next Tuesday. Sheriff Baker placed him in jail here Tuesday.

THE REGISTER has received the following from R. H. Jesse, President of the University of the State of Missouri: "Every member of the House and of the Senate in the Legislature of the State has a right to appoint to the University from his district, one cadet. Such appointment gives the cadet twenty dollars in money (if he enters the Academic Department, which most of them do) and secures him at least one uniform, which is a good suit of clothes. The appointment by law should be made in early August. It is good for two years. Occupied with many things, Senators and Representatives sometimes forget to make these appointments. It is a kindness, therefore, to them as well as to their constituents, some of whom are your readers, to call attention to this matter through the county papers. Is there a vacancy in your county or Senatorial District? If so, it should be filled promptly, as the time set by law for such appointments is now at hand. The University has surely no financial interest in these appointments."

Under the provisions of an act of the last General Assembly of Missouri, each County is entitled to one Free Scholarship in any department of the University of the State of Missouri. Said act provides that on the first week in August each year, beginning with the first Monday, there shall be held at the Court House in the County Seat, a written examination of all applicants qualified under the law to be students of the University; said applicants shall be actual residents of the County between the ages of sixteen and twenty-five years. Said act further provides no applicant shall be qualified to receive such scholarship unless the Board of Examiners shall be satisfied that the applicant is dependent upon his own exertions for his education and financially unable to otherwise obtain the same. Now, therefore, notice is hereby given that there will be a meeting of the Board of Examiners of Iron County, Missouri, at the Court House in the City of Ironton, on Monday, August 3d, 1896, at 10 o'clock, for the purpose of examining all applicants for Free Scholarship.

WM. A. FLETCHER,
Clerk of the County Court.

Ripety! Ripety!
Rah! Rah! Rah!
Middlebrook! Middlebrook!
Ha! Ha! Ha!

Mrs. Lena Salt and sister, Miss Anna Hauck, last week entertained a party of friends from St. Louis, including Misses Laura Koelle, Celia Rhein, Gustie Hauck, Paula and Amanda Follenius, and Messrs. Dr. Fuchs, Fred Hauck, Hugo Koelle and Otto Kahle. The party arrived on the Arcadia Friday night, and were met at the station by the Middlebrook String Band, and were given possession of the town. With their advent Middlebrook put on her holiday attire, and during their short stay resumed a vestige of the glory of by-gone years, when she was happiest. Through the efforts of our genial and hospitable friend, Wm. Trauernicht, Esq., the visitors were shown to all the principal points of interest. Saturday morning the party spent a few pleasant hours among the giant boulders at Grantville, and in the afternoon a trip was taken to the Iron Mountain dam, where all enjoyed themselves until late in the evening. Sunday was spent in the famous Shut-In and the beautiful Arcadia Valley—a day that will long be remembered by the participants. We omitted to state that on Saturday night the young men of Middlebrook gave a dance in honor of the guests, which was greatly enjoyed. The visitors departed Tuesday morning, with many regrets, leaving behind them several young men in whose eyes one can trace a far-away look of suppressed longing that a week ago was unknown to them.

The following, taken from the De Soto Press, will call forth the sympathies of many citizens of Ironton, who knew the parents years ago when they were residents of the Valley. The editor of the Register, who knew them in those earlier days, sincerely joins in the general expression of regret and condolence: "A very sad accident occurred on Tuesday evening last, which resulted in the death of John Edward, the youngest child of Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Munroe, a lovely and beautiful boy six months of age. From information received from friends of the family, it seems that Mrs. Munroe had gone up stairs to attend to some household duties, leaving the little boy in the baby carriage which was on the porch at the time. The servant who was in charge of the carriage, with its precious load, went inside the house to attend to some chores. How the accident occurred will probably never be definitely known, but the little boy must have raised himself up and fell from the carriage on the floor, striking upon the side of his head, breaking its neck. The parents are completely prostrated by this sad visitation of the Angel of Death, and the sympathies of the fathers and mothers of this entire community go out to them in this hour of their deep bereavement. It is sad to lose a loved one even when we can stay by their bedside and minister to them, but to have them snatched from us in an instant, while in perfect health, is much harder to bear. The funeral services were held at the Catholic Church on Wednesday evening, and were attended by a large concourse of sorrowing relatives and friends. The sincere and heartfelt sympathy of the Press is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Munroe, and may they look, in this hour of their sad affliction, to the all-wise and merciful ruler of the universe."

Children's Day was celebrated at the M. E. Church at Grantville on Sunday evening, July 26th, and was pronounced a grand success in every particular. Notwithstanding the very warm weather, the church was filled long before the usual time for opening, and many came who could not be seated. The programme consisted of songs by the Sunday School, trios, quartets, etc. Also recitations by scholars of all sizes. Everything was interesting throughout the entire programme. The singing was far above the average. The "tiny little folks" delighted the audience by singing alone—"Jesus loves the children," and other selections. The trio by Mr. Warrington, Maud Ferguson and Hattie Crews, convinced the audience that they possessed vocal abilities far above the ordinary. They sang—"Behold, the Bridegroom Comes." And Miss Kittie Reed rendered a solo—"Throw Out the Life Line"—with very pleasing effect. The well known Quartet, Mr. Waldram and his daughter, Miss Annie, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Warrington, by request, sang to the delight of every one present. "When the Harvest is Past." The recitations were all well rendered. Clifton Fitzpatrick recited the "Greeting," which was an original production from the pen of Mrs. Walsh, as were also several others recited by Masters Ernest Warrington and Felo Bateman. They spoke for themselves as to Mrs. Walsh's high literary abilities. We give the "Greeting" in full below. Little Ruth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Allen, delighted the audience by reciting with great distinctness and precision, a production from her mother's pen, entitled—"Forbid Them Not," which is also given below. Little Esther, a sister of little Ruth, and who is not quite three years old, recited with ease and distinctness—"Little Bo Peep." The "Fruitless Tree"—by Maud Ferguson, "The Preacher's Vacation," by Lulu Osterley, "The Starless Crown," by Mrs. Wesley, and "For You I Am Praying," by Lizzie Fitzpatrick, were well rendered and had a decidedly elevating effect upon those who heard them. The music by Miss Bertha Shifferly was excellent. The decorations were simply grand. Many thanks to the kind friends who gave the use of their flowers, and the good taste of the young ladies who arranged them. The collection taken at the close of service amounted to $5.

GREETING.
A welcome to teachers and scholars, And to friends of this school, one and all! I trust you will overlook errors, Especially in those who are small; For this is our first exhibition, And we've barely had time to rehearse, So please do not be too exacting, But take us "for better or worse."

We are here in the cause of religion, To assist in all that is right, And although we are only children, We are anxious to do "our mite." Our Superintendent and teachers Have instructed us what to say, And we hope we shall do them credit On this—"The Children's Day."

To their untiring efforts We feel all praise is due, So we shall endeavor to please them, And to please our audience, too. Next year we hope to do better—"We'll be larger then, you know—We trust our school will prosper On this—"The Children's Day."

For we work and pull together—That's the secret of success—And the efforts of the faithful We know that God will bless. So, dear, kind friends, bear with us, And cheer us on our way, With smiles and pleasant greetings On this—"The Children's Day."

FORBID THEM NOT.
There is no sweeter story told In all the blessed book, Than how the Savior in his arms The little children took.

He came to earth for one and all, To save us from our sins; We must do his blessed will And rise and let him in.

Forbid us not, O blessed Christ! We bring unto thee here, And on our heads thy blessings rest Through all Eternity.

PERSONAL.
Mrs. Mamie Reese has returned from Farmington.
Mrs. Hall and Mrs. Collins, St. Louis, were in the Valley last week.
Mrs. Dr. Pettit is spending a week in Ironton.

Bruce Lindsay and wife are visiting his mother here.
H. B. Jones and wife, Newport, Ark., are visiting home folks.
Miss Beckenkamp, St. Louis, were guests at Mr. Jno. Schwab's last week.
Mrs. H. B. Ake and children, of Marianna, Ark., are visiting Mrs. J. T. Ake.

F. P. Ake came home from Marianna this morning.
Misses Josie and Cora Williams, St. Louis, are visiting W. G. Fairchild's.

MARBLE CREEK.
Ed. Register—Since our last writing nothing much has occurred, but will send you a few items of recent occurrence.

The weather continually grows warmer, with frequent and refreshing showers to cool the air.

Mrs. Brady, we are sorry to learn, is no better.

This section of road is promised some repairs and it will be a long felt want relieved. The roads are in a worse condition than they have been since the heavy rains and washouts four years ago.

Mrs. Brian of Belgrade is visiting her sister, Mrs. Parks. The sisters visited the house of their childhood days, known as the Jimmie George farm, and ate some fruit from trees that Mrs. Brian planted 32 years ago.

Miss Needam, of Chicago, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Brady.

The soldiers were seen out riding on the Greenville road Saturday, and passed through Logtown. It is rare to see troops in this part of the county.

J. W. Lashley, of Bellevue, and daughter, Miss Laura, and little granddaughter, Elsie, were the guests of N. P. Guffy, Saturday and Sunday.

Graniteville News.

Ed. Register—Mr. and Mrs. David Archie left last Saturday for a couple of weeks' visit with relatives in Red-bud, Iowa.

Children's Day exercises were held last Sunday evening at the M. E. church. A splendid programme was arranged, consisting of singing, recitations, etc. The decorations, though not elaborate, were elegant and tasty, as is characteristic of our good M. E. people in all that they undertake. The house was filled to overflowing, and, notwithstanding the late day on which their entertainment took place, all who attended were highly pleased and amply remunerated for their attendance.

A slight fist-cuff boot took place amongst our two down-town shoemakers (rivals in business)—Mitchell vs. Rutschilling—the former, however, getting a little the best of the set-to. This was one of the exciting events yesterday; for only a few minutes, though, when all was quiet.

First Sergeants, troops I. B. and K., Messrs Andrews, Oulette and Lehman, First Sergeant Quartermaster Koch, Second Sergeant Letestier, Corporal Hutton, and Sharpshooters Zwick, Conrad, J. B. Daniels and Miss Josie Olson have been engaged to teach our school this winter. Miss Vida Fitzpatrick will teach the Haganites this fall and winter.

Mr. E. M. Smith and family are still tenting at Iron Mountain dam and living on the fish of the water; and it is said they are having reasonably good luck.

The M. E. church people have kalsomined the interior of their edifice, whitewashed the fence, and other improvements that add very materially to the looks of their premises.

The Presbyterian folks will have their Bazaar about the 10th of August.

Mrs. J. D. Greason is at present visiting with Ironton friends.

July 28, 1896. CAP.

Mrs. Rhodie Noah, of this place, was taken in the night with cramping pains and the next day diarrhoea set in. She took half a bottle of blackberry cordial but got no relief. She then sent me to see if I had anything that would help her. I sent her a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and the first dose relieved her. Another of our neighbors had been sick for about a week and had tried different remedies for diarrhoea but kept getting worse. I sent him this same remedy. Only four doses of it were required to cure him. He says he owes his recovery to this wonderful remedy.—Mrs. Mary Sibley, Sidney, Mich. For sale by all dealers.

From Bismarck.

Ed. Register—E. J. Allen, brakeman on branch local out of this place, was caught between two cars last Monday and given a severe and painful roll. He was taken to his home at his sister's, Mrs. Joseph Collier, examined by the Company physician, who pronounced his injuries local. Ed. at this writing is out in town.

Zeno B. Clardy of El Paso, Texas, was in town a few hours on his way to visit his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Jno. E. Clardy, of Wolf Creek. Mr. Clardy spoke encouragingly of the silver ticket booming by Bryan as his leader, and said there is no doubt that the country will be carried by a grand wave of the free silver cause in November. He will return to El Paso after visiting relatives and friends for two weeks.

Mrs. Sam Bowman and sister, Miss Lula Sherman, of Little Rock, are spending a few weeks visiting relatives at this place.

A fishing party, composed of Mr. and Mrs. Lynch and family, Miss Shaw and Augusta Lucius, spent one day last week at Iron Mountain dam. They report a pleasant outing, but few fish.

Theodore Gherman of Greenville, the efficient salesman for Klotz & Holiday Mercantile Co., is home recuperating from an attack of malaria.

Hon. M. L. Clardy, the Mo. P. R. Attorney, spent a portion of a day last week in town trying to convince some people that it was wrong to advance the interest Lon V. Stephens for Governor, but the attempt was fruitless, as at Farmington the following Monday Stephens delegates were selected but not instructed. If the voters would consider their interest and never fail to vote against the wishes of the monopolies of the country, instead of clinging out to laws, the people would gain their American freedom back in less than half the time of the rate now pursued.

Born—To Mrs. John Boring, a boy, on the 24th. To Mrs. D. M. Stroder, a boy, on the 23d; and, best of all, they are both from Free Silver stock.

Mr. A. J. McCoy and family, and Mr. W. D. Coy of Trinidad, Colo., have returned to Bismarck, after being away several days. They will embark in business, 'tis said.

Infant son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Griffith of Irondale, Mo., aged two months and five days, died of pyemia, July 27th. The remains were buried at Big River cemetery the following day.

Wheat is not yielding as was predicted. Very few farmers are averaging ten bushels to the acre. NIX.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy cures colds, croup and whooping cough. It is pleasant, safe and reliable. For sale by all dealers.

Annapolis News.

Ed. Register—Every day we meet with the phrase, "Goldbug Democrat." That it is a misnomer is evident to all thinking people. For this reason Goldbug and Democrat in this year of our Lord are incongruous terms. The fundamental principle of Democracy is majority rule. There are but three well defined forms of government: Monarchical, Aristocratic and Democratic. Therefore, that which is opposed to majority rule is Aristocratic or Monarchical—the setting up of superior wisdom of the classes.

Have your Goldbugs ever been willing to submit to a fair test of strength? Have they not taken advantage of every technicality to avoid a test of strength?

If so, then where is their Democracy? They are Aristocrats pure and simple, and would be autocrats if they had the power. Are they not engaged to-day in a scheme to disrupt the Democratic party and thus secure the election of McKinley and minority rule?

If they meet with sufficient encouragement they will put up a straw ticket to catch the votes of their dupes, while they will vote for McKinley.

The Democratic party should be thankful to be rid of them, for they were an incubus and their departure is the separating of the dross from the pure metal.

Their avowed purpose is to defeat Bryan.

That means the election of McKinley. Then why not vote for McKinley? Ah! that is what they will do. But they doubtless think that a straw ticket would catch many votes that would otherwise go to Bryan.

They are not aware of the deep feeling of the common people on this subject.

The great Democratic victory in '92 was, in my opinion, due to the fact that the people thought the leaders sincere on the currency question.

Now that double-dealing has been relegated to the oblivion of the past, we believe that the will of the people will prevail and the election of Bryan restore public confidence in our government, and be the beginning of an era of good will and prosperity.

July 26, 1896. CRUX.

Burgundy Items.

Ed. Register—As there has been nothing said from the West End in quite a while, we now think it necessary to try our best.

The farmers of this community are busily engaged in saving hay, etc.

Prof. Samuel Thompson of Black, Mo., began his term of school at Burgundy on July 6th. May success crown his efforts in struggling to direct and instruct the pupils in the way they should go.

Death entered the home of Mr. and Mrs. Green Sumpter on the 23d of June, and took away their darling little Lela girl, aged 5 years, 4 months and 3 days, after a serious illness of about four months. She was a bright and intelligent little one, and is missed by every one that knew her. She requested that her doll and playthings should be buried with her, and continued singing as long as her breath was spared, and told her mamma and papa to prepare to meet her in heaven. Her remains were laid to rest in a selected place on the farm of Geo. Sumpter's. A large number attended the funeral services, which were conducted by Messrs Alvin Dennis and Marion Mayberry.

The country seems to be overrun with dry goods peddlers of late. Some other neighbors making a few purchases.

The toot and the whistle of the steam tug can be heard from most any direction now. Frank Short of Cotaway is now threshing for the people of this community.

Visiting H. R. Henderson and family on last Sunday were Mrs. Green Sumpter, G. G. Adams and Mrs. S. Eaton.

G. G. Adams still has a longing to go to Otrine occasionally. He tried many so called kidney cures but without any good result. About a year ago he began use of Electric Bitters and found relief at once. Electric Bitters is especially adapted to cure of all Kidney and Liver troubles and often gives almost instant relief. One trial will prove our statement. Price only 50c. for large bottle. At Crisp's Drug Store.

Miss Ella Shy has returned home, after a three months' visit to her aunt, Mrs. Houston Latham of Cicones.

Well, Mr. Editor, if this escapes the scrap book or waste basket, I will come again. RATTLER.

Colored Society Gossip.

Mrs. Elvira Sutherland of St. Louis, who is visiting her mother, Mrs. Samuel Boyd, lost her infant son last Sunday.

Mrs. Rogers has been quite ill of malaria.

Mr. D. W. Kenney and son are on the sick list.

Miss Georgia Farrar of St. Louis is visiting Mrs. Lewis Fletcher.

Miss Nellie Buckner of St. Louis and Miss Zetta Jackson of Greenville, Ohio, are spending vacation with Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Vaughn.

Miss Alma Johnson is spending several days in St. Louis.

Prof. Jackson of Lincoln Institute, who spent a few days with friends in this city, has left for an extended trip through the east, where he will visit the Niagara Falls, Case Science School of Cleveland, Ohio, and other places of interest, before he returns to Jefferson City.

Rev. McKutcheon of Farmington assisted Rev. Miller in a grand rally Sunday, which proved to be quite a success.

H. F. Boyd and several others are anticipating a pleasure trip to De Soto next week.

Mrs. H. Smith's son is quite ill.

Prof. T. W. H. Williams, of the Summer High School of Kansas City, was in this city on business this week. The Epworth League rendered a very interesting programme last Tuesday evening.

The Mission Society solicits your presence at the entertainment Friday evening.

It isn't to be wondered at that there are so many sick and half-sick women. Most of them suppose their peculiar troubles can only be cured by the physician. That means local treatment and examinations. No wonder they hesitate. And hesitation gives disease a stronger foothold.

The truth is that local treatment and examinations are nearly always unnecessary. They should not be submitted to 'till everything else fails.
